COWLEY HAPPENINGS

Heavy showers have been welcome
here the early part of the week.
Picked crops and gardens were getting thirty for rain. On Monday afternoon, a hail to the depth of four inches, covering a little better than a square mile of land, fell on the Bouthillier and Perceval farms, a half mile west of here.
On Sunday afternoon, a softball game between Cowley and the Pincher Creek juniors teams was played off here with a score of 6-5 in favor of Pincher Creek.

A garden party, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of St. Martin's Anglican church in the Livingston
district, was held at the home of Mr.
and Mrs. A. Noel Cox on Saturday afternoon. Entertainment took the form of bridge, tennis, archery, and golf. Tea was served on the lawn.

Mrs. X. C. Kaupp received a visit from her father and two brothers, Joe and Pius Nicholas, of Bow Island, this week.

Heavy frost on the night of May 27
did a lot of damage here to gardens.
Tender vegetables were nipped.
Flowering shrubs and less hardy perennials were set back by the frost.
Alfalfa fields as well as grain crops were also damaged. Looking back over 50 years, we cannot recall so late a hard frost. However it is still early enough to reseed the gardens and other crops, which we presume have only had a set back.

A softball game, sponsored by the Cowley Athletic Society was played off on home ground between Pincher Creek and Cowley on Wednesday evening resulting in a score of 12-8 in favor of Cowley. The sports program was concluded with a dance held in Pam's hall the same night.

Mrs. Joe Henton, of Maycroft, has returned home from Pincher Creek where she was inmate in St. Vincent's hospital for a few days.

Mrs. W. E. Bent returned home Friday following a six week visit with her two sisters Mrs. C. Linn and Mrs.
C. Fitting in New York city. This was the first time the three sisters had met in 50 years.

Mrs. Bent was born in Manhattan, where she grew to womanhood and when on her recent visit to the place of her birth, besides seeing her sisters she met a number of nephews,
nieces and cousins besides renewing acquaintances with a lot of old schoolmates. She also visited an old friend,
Mrs. N. Coleman, of Astoria, Long Island, whom she had not seen for 57 years and when on her homeward journey, she stopped over in Chicago
for a three days visit with another old friend, Mrs. Anna Rotgen whom she had not seen for 30 years.

When asking Mrs. Bent what impressed her most in the great city
she said that it was the changes that had taken place in the last fifty years. She mentioned the Hudson, the George Washington bridge, the Empire State building, the Waldorf Astoria, etc., the floral beauty, the terraced azalea gardens and so on.

HOME LIGHTING

Indirect lighting which may be effective, and adequate, in the dining room at meal times, is not sufficient for reading and study purposes.
Health authorities specializing in illumination improvement, say that if a room is to be used for close work, light should be supplemented by semi-direct reading lamps, preferable
of the floor type.

In the living room, it is also well to have either floor or table lamps where needed, so that every member of the family gets suitable illumination.

The local golf club will play host
on Sunday to a number of sharpshooters from Fernie.

RED CROSS TO REGISTER BLOOD DONORS JUNE 15—21

Plans for the operation of the Canadian Red Cross Society's free peacetime blood transfusion service in Alberta has been announced. This peacetime plan is to obtain voluntary donations of blood to supply hospitals with a continuous supply of blood for free transfusion when so required.

In connection with the province-wide campaign, the local Red Cross branch will enroll blood donors under the scheme during the dates of June 15 to 21. Registration may be made with Mrs. A. N. Smith, secretary or leave your name with Robert Oakes, president. Following registration, at a time to be announced later, the mobile units will begin their work in the towns and cities.

BLAIRMORE YPA HOLD SEASON-FINAL MEETING

The Blairmore Young People's Association held their final meeting for the 1946-47 gatherings on Tuesday, May 27, in the United church auditorium, with acting president
Norman Walker, presiding. Rev.
Jas. McKelvey was present throughout the session.

Decision to discontinue meetings
owing to holidays of members was reached and plans made for a final get-together at Crow's Nest Lake Wednesday next, June 11, to take the form of marshmallow roast and wiener roast, followed by other entertainment to round out the evening.
The 1947-48 gatherings are expected to commence in September.

A vote of thanks was accorded the United church for their co-operation in the use of the auditorium for bedroom and part of the basement as a side range. Also thanks were expressed to Rev. McKelvey for his help in directing the club throughout the year.

Arrangement was also made at the meeting to renovate the gymnasium in the basement, the floor of which is badly damaged through flood waters
as well as giving the walls attention.

Sunday and evenings next week are:
Bellevue Motors, Bellevue; Suter's Motors, Blairmore; Ding & Lew, Coleman; Laid's, Frank; and Welsh Bros., Hillcrest.

WOUNDING CASE BRINGS TWO MONTHS

Culmination of a neighbors quarrel resulted in John Oles receiving two months for wounding, in the late evening of May 2nd, of Antonio Lessa
with a .22 rifle.

The case was aired in local court
on Monday before Magistrate Antrobus when sentence was meted out.
On Tuesday Lessa was brought before the magistrate charged by Oles with common assault and was fined $5 and costs.

more and funeral was held yesterday
afternoon with Rev. Jas. McKelvey officiating and H. Culham in charge.

HOW THEY PAINT TODAY'S CARS

There once was a time when automobiles got 12 coats of paint in as many days before they left the factory. Now they get three coats in less than an hour—and the finished job
is more durable and more appealing too. All this indicates the advances in paint technology brought about by synthetic resins and enamels, but auto manufacturers still have the problem of trying to keep in time
with changing color preferences.

Many an automobile is bought because of a color preference, even in these days of color shortages, so color is important to manufacturer. Just how important it is was demonstrated a few years ago when one company
brought out a model in Chinese gold
—only to have sales fall off sharply.
The experiment hasn't been repeated
since.

Of the seven standard colors now used on new cars, black is by far the most popular, getting a preference of about 33 per cent. Medium blue is first choice for about 17 per cent of car-borders, followed by dark blue, maroon and grey in that order. Green trails with a five per cent preference, manufacturers report.

In choosing colors, manufacturers quite frankly keep close tab on the preferences of women because it is estimated that women have a voice in the choosing of four out of every five cars bought. Dealers across the country send manufacturers careful reports of color styling choices and trends.

The speed-up in car production
through the use of new paint techniques is one of the most interesting of all production-line changes. The 12 hand-applied coats of paint which once went on the family car represented a bottleneck of production requiring exceptionally large painting and drying spaces to say nothing of a great deal of labor.

The modern car gets one priming coat and two top coats to produce a finish which can stand up to all types of weather conditions much better than could the 12 coats of yesterday.
Rapid advances in painting techniques and formulae account for the improvement, with spray booths, baking ovens and synthetic enamels replacing older, more laborious methods.

Today's car gets a total of two gallons of protective coating, applied in 12 minutes in spray booths through which the car moves. After the spraying, each car travels through a 200 foot oven where special lamps and high temperatures bake on the finish.
By the time the model is through that, it has a gleaming, durable finish.

The manufacturer's worry about the painting is not completely over at that stage, however. Some of the assembly work is done after that, and a slipping screw-driver may cause a scratch that mars the highly polished finish. When that happens, the car people don't fool around with an attempted patching job. Instead, the whole section goes back to the spray booths for a re-do.

Mount Archibald Named for Agricultural Leader

The man who directs the extension of Canada's northern agricultural frontiers has been honored by the Geographic Board of Canada which recently gave his name to this Yukon mountain—Mount Archibald.

Shown here are the 8600-foot peak and Dr. E. B.
Archibald, Director, Experimental Farms Service, Dominion Department of Agriculture, for whom it was named.

An outstanding leader in experimental agriculture,
Dr. Archibald directs the operation of 27 experimental farms and stations, 13 sub-stations, four laboratories, 165 illustration stations, and 52 district experiment stations. In recent years, the Experimental Farms service has been expanded by the establishment of experimental sub-stations in both the Yukon and Northwest Territories for the study of northern agriculture.

Located in Latitude 60° 45' 06", Longitude 137° 51' 23", Mount Archibald overlooks the experimental substation at Mile 1019 on the Alaskan Highway.

FUNCTIONS OF FOOD

Food, say the nutritionists, has three general uses—it supplies fuel for heat and motion, material for building and body-repair, and substances for regulating body processes.

In addition, food has many special uses within the body. B.B.B.s, which supply many of the materials our bodies need are called the "protective foods." Nutrition authorities advise Canadians to learn what these essential foods are, and to include them in their diet regularly.

COAL MINERS WRITE EXAMS

The week twenty-eight miners have passed tests in Southern Alberta coal mines and traveled to the Calgary courthouse to pick up pens and struggle over examination papers set by the mines branch of the provincial lands and mines department.

The men are writing examinations to obtain 1st and 2nd class mining proficiency certificates and if successful they will qualify for positions as mine managers, mine overseers and mine surveyors.

These examinations started this morning and will continue for three days. The miners are from the Crow's Nest Pass, Lethbridge, Canmore and Drumheller coal fields.

Four men are in charge of the examinations and they are W. E. G. Hall, Calgary, district inspector of mines; Joseph Dutton, Edmonton, assistant chief inspector of mines; D. J. Holly, Coleman, representing the miners and William Wilson, Canmore, representing the mine managers.

FIVE-DAY WEEK IN BRITAIN'S MINES SHOWS GOOD RESULTS

Britain's miners produced more than 4,000,000 tons of coal in their second five-day week—almost as much as the record production in the last six-day week. Their total output was 4,056,800 tons compared with 3,756,100 tons the previous week and 4,108,300 tons in the week ending May 31st—the last six-day week, which was the highest for any week since 1942. The five-day week resulted in a big drop in absenteeism.

CANADIAN EXHIBIT AROUSES INTEREST AT B.L.F.

Interest displayed in Canada's exhibit at the British Industries Fair, held in London, May 5-16, far exceeded anything experienced in previous years. Trade enquiries received during the first week exceeded those submitted for the whole period of previous fairs.

Most of the requests for information were from foreign buyers wishing to establish two-way trade with Canada, and others came from manufacturers considering the establishment of branch factories in this country. Many were particularly interested in labor conditions here, and were pleased to learn that power for industry is cheap and plentiful. Her Majesty Queen Mary and other members of the Royal Family visited the Canadian exhibit, including the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester, the Princess Royal and the Duchess of Kent.

J. W. Rainbow, of Winnipeg, western sales manager for Post-Cola Co. of Canada, was a visitor the past week to Crow's Nest Pass Boilers who are the Pass boilers and distributors. He was highly impressed with the sanitary operation and modern equipment of the local plant. During the war, Mr. Rainbow was controller with the WPTB in connection with boilers. While in Blaimore he met an old friend, Principal D. McPherson.

BIG TOURIST SEASON AHEAD!

THE THOMPSONS are busy as bees, getting their place in shape for the tourist season. This year, with three more cabins, electricity and a modernized kitchen, they hope to do even better than before.

They were able to make these additions because last fall Mr. Thompson drove to town to see his bank manager. He knew about the nice little business the Thompsons had built up; a bank loan was quickly arranged.

Now the Thompsons can handle more tourists and increase their income. At the same time Canada will benefit from the extra tourist dollars they take in.

The ice is still THIN!

Even though the "Danger" signs of Inflation can be taken down now, they have to be replaced with signs reading, "Proceed With Caution." The ice is still too thin for any Canadian to test himself, "Now, at last, I can go ahead and buy everything I want."

We can't—yet. But we can proceed to enjoy—in moderation—many of the goods and services which were so long in short supply. These good things are ours at moderate prices now because we were moderate in our demands before.

Today, Canadians can indeed be proud of one of this country's finest possessions, which is, as The House of Seagram has long contended, this nation's policy of moderation in all things—in its thinking, in its buying and in its personal habits.

MISS MARION MOODIE TO ADDRESS HOSPITAL ALUMNAE

Miss Marion Moodie, of Montreal, first graduate of the Calgary General Hospital School of Nursing, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the hospital Alumnae Association Monday at 8:15 in the Gas Company auditorium.

Miss Moodie entered training in the General hospital in 1895 and has been attached to the hospital staff in Frank and at the sanatorium at Ninette, Manitoba. She has also written a book of poems entitled "Songs of the West and Other Poems".

—Calgary Herald, May 30.

Money doesn't talk half as much as some of the folks who suddenly acquire it.

HIS MASTERPIECE

One day while Charles Hanson Towne was sojourning at Oxford, he decided to pay a call on John Macfie, who lived not far away.

Mrs. Macfie received the visitor cordially, but explained that Mr. Macfie was busy at the moment, and could not be disturbed.

"Say for tea," she invited, "and then you can meet him."

With visions of the poet putting the finishing touches to a sonnet, Towne replied, "Thank you. I wouldn't dream of disturbing him."

Tea was being served, when Macfie, attired in a thin, rather wrinkled suit, put in his appearance.

"You look rather tired, John," Mrs. Macfie remarked. "Did you finish it?"

Towne fervently hoped the poet would bring out the piece and read it. "Yes," replied Macfie, "I finished it."

"How did it go, John?" his wife inquired.

"Splendid!" rejoined the poet. "It's undoubtedly the best hencoop I've ever built."

HOME ACCIDENTS

All sorts of hazards, particularly for young children, exist in the home, and National Health leaders at Ottawa have issued a timely warning that a little care in and around the house may prevent serious mishaps.

They recommend protection at stairs and windows, so that children cannot injure themselves by falls. Safe play apparatus, in the house and garden, is also advised and the medical authorities suggest that the tacking down of such traps, as those loose carpets will remove a further hazard.

"What a happy day it will be for you when your Oldsmobile is here!"

HERE'S an up-to-the-minute version of that grand old tune, "In My Merry Oldsmobile". In the new words you'll find one of the outstanding reasons why Oldsmobile owners are so enthusiastically singing the praises of the 1947 Oldsmobile. What a smart looking car it is! . . . Long and low and smooth in its lines—tailored just to your taste. It's a smart performer, too, and it offers all the features you want.

You go places with less effort in a new Oldsmobile with GM Hydra-Matic Drive. Yet you get livelier performance, better economy, and greater safety than you did in old-fashioned driving. Hydra-Matic Drive is the only fully proved, fully automatic drive—and it's at its peak in the 1947 Oldsmobile!

There's no clutch pushing with GM Hydra-Matic Drive—not even a clutch pedal in the car. And all gear shifting is automatic, through all four forward speeds. Just take the wheel of an Oldsmobile and sit back in comfort, enjoying the smoothest driving you've ever known!

To you who are waiting for your new Oldsmobile—our thanks for your patience. . . our tribute to your wisdom. The demand for Oldsmobile with the new GM Hydra-Matic Drive is so widespread that it still greatly exceeds the supply. Make sure your present car carries you conveniently and safely through the waiting period by having it checked regularly by your GM dealer.

*Hydra-Matic Drive is optional at extra cost.

Hope For This Year's Harvest

AS ONE OF THE GREAT wheat producing nations Canada, and particularly the people of the Prairie Provinces, cannot but be at all times deeply interested in the world food situation, for economic conditions here are to a large degree dependent on the demand on foreign markets for the products of our farms. Wheat, which is also known in many places as the "bread grain" is always regarded as being of great value in sustaining life, and is particularly essential when other foods are scarce. At the present time there is an acute food shortage in the world, and a great deal depends upon the success of this year's harvest on the wheat farms of North America. Britain, which is managing on very limited supplies of food, has little hope of a good harvest this year because of the storms of unprecedented severity which buffeted the country during the winter and early spring.

Situation To Be More Acute

As a result of these storms Britain will have to depend upon shipments from other countries for food supplies in the coming year. In Europe, and particularly in Germany serious food shortages are occurring and many observers predict that even more serious situations will arise in the next few months. In regard to conditions in Germany, there are many people who look upon the present plight of the people there as a direct result of their own actions. There are also many who believe that the Germans should not expect help from abroad, in view of the misery for which they were responsible when their armies swept over Europe. This has been a controversial subject ever since the defeat of Germany. Disregarding the moral aspects of the problem, however, it must be admitted that we can hope for neither economic stability nor permanent peace when people in any part of the world are without food.

Should Receive More Attention

Lack of food is looked upon as one of the most common causes of political unrest, and recent events have demonstrated only too clearly that political instability abroad can seriously affect our own prospects for progress and security. The fact that we are without doubt living in "one world" and that the problems and distress of any one group of people cannot be safely disregarded, has not yet been fully realized and seriously considered by everyone. That fact, however, remains one of the fundamental truths of our times, and unless it is given serious thought, many of our present plans for the peace and security of the world will, of necessity, fail. Great hope is centred this year on the wheat harvest in this country, and it is to be hoped that there will be a heavy crop, and that through it Canada may be instrumental in averting a real disaster throughout the world, and particularly in Europe, during the coming year.

Fashion News From London

Beil-like skirts supported by stiffened canvas petticoats, off-the-shoulder necklines and even smaller waists are features of summer fashions that are coming into production in Britain's dress industry. Vivacity of design and suppleness of line and detail characterize the prototypes of summer clothes now being shown in London. Pale pink marcella—a fine cotton—brings sophistication to the summer dress in one model; another has been made in a navy and white checked duster cotton model complemented by a fitted corset waist and a full round the shoulders. White shirazkin is being used for tailored dresses highlighted—by belts of bright-colored webbing, and white marcella is used for a tailored beach suit with knee-length shorts (gentlemen turn-ups are a feature of these) and a bare midriff "monkey" jacket with sleeves and corset front cut in one.

FUNNY And OTHERWISE

"What's the most effective agency for the redistribution of wealth?"

"The wives and daughters of rich men."

"Which would you prefer in your future husband—wealth, ability, or appearance?" asked the pretty girl.

"Appearance, my dear," replied the splinter, "but he's got to appear pretty soon."

"Tattered Tim: I've been tramping four years, man, and it's all 'cause I heard that the doctors recommended walkin' as the best exercise."

Mrs. Prim: "Well, the doctors are right. Walk, 'alone."

Negro Mammy—Al wants to see Mistah Tompkins.

Office Boy—"I'm sorry, but Mr. Tompkins is engaged."

Negro Mammy—"Go 'long chile. Ah don't want to marry Mistah Tompkins. Ah jest' wanta see him."

Employer: "Why are you throwing those handbills on the pavement?"

Bill Distributor: "Well, that's wot the people does I give 'em to. So it's only saving time."

Doctor (after examining patient): "I don't like the looks of your husband, Mrs. Brown."

Mrs. Brown—Neither do I doctor, but he's good to our children."

"Mary," said her mother reprovingly, "every time you are naughty, I get another grey hair."

"Gee, Mom, you must have been a terror when you were young—just look at Grandma!"

Judge O'Flaherty: "Haven't you been before me before?"

Prisoner: "No, y'r honor. Ol never seen but wan face that looked folks, yours an' that was a photograph of an Irish king."

Judge O'Flaherty: "Discharged! Call the next case."

It was a concert in aid of the Children's Fund. A lady whose voice was simply appalling had just finished her song, and Brown almost had a fit when he found his wife was applauding her boisterously.

"What on earth are you clapping for, have you gone mad?" he cried. "The woman's voice was simply awful."

"Oh, but her dress is lovely," cried his wife, "and I want to have another look at it so that I can give the dressmaker hints upon making mine."

Two friends (one married, the other a bachelor) were at the latest play, admiring the performance of a famous actor.

By jove, the married man murmured, "he's grand; he's wonderful. The way he displays affection towards the leading lady, eh?"

"Yes—pretty good," the bachelor agreed. "But you know he's been married to her, actually, for eighteen years."

"What? Really married?" gasped the married man. "Gosh—what an actor!"

B.C. ARCHITECT DESIGNS HOMES TO SAVE STEPS—Mrs. Catherine Chard Wianicki, wife of a Polish air force veteran and British Columbia's only registered woman architect, is shown here with her six-month-old twins. She graduated from McGill university at 23 with a bachelor of architecture degree. Living at present in a rented home, she hopes to build a home. Her idea of a home is a design for living and working in home; her advice: do not choose haphazardly from magazines, but benefit from everyday observation.

Uses Drastic Means In Trying To Regain Husband's Love

WHITFIELD, Kent, England—Mrs. Lucy Wright, 45, was bound over for two years after admitting to magistrates she tampered with a tractor driven by her husband in the hope that "Bert would break his neck."

Later she explained to a reporter: "I love Bert."

"He means the world to me. Every time I see him he has a wonderful effect on me, but he won't have anything to do with me. A year ago he left me because of a quarrel and we've lived apart ever since then."

"I tore some loads from the tractor. I imagined Bert being seriously hurt. That horrified me—but most important of all I imagined myself getting him well again, with him finding love for me once more. That's why I did it."

Wright, Lucy's third husband, commented: "Lucy shouldn't tamper with tractors. It makes things difficult."

SNOW GEESSE RETURN AFTER PLANES LEAVE

WINNIPEG—Blue and lesser snow geese paused on Manitoba lakes and rivers this spring on their flights northward—the first time they have done so since R.C.A.F. gunnery and bombing schools became active four years ago.

After the establishment of the R.C.A.F. schools, particularly at Macdonald, the geese rested in the Dakotas and Iowa and then flew north to Hudson Bay. Last year there was a small flight through Alberta, the first such recorded.

With war-time flying activities ceased, naturalists are hoping the geese will resume their normal route. But Dr. W. Cartwright, chief naturalist for Ducks Unlimited, is cautious.

"The geese are showing extreme restlessness and a divergence from their normal habits. Their whole behavior is in a state of flux and it's difficult to make predictions," he says.

Canadian Home In Fire Haunted

DUBLIN.—The Canadian government owns a "haunted house" in Dublin. That's what the superstitious Irish servants say; and that's why the help must number three.

St. Brigid's, box-like home on the city outskirts, was bought recently as a residence for the high commissioner, Hon. W. F. A. Turgott.

"No Irish servant will stay alone in the place," he said. "Two will stay; but sometimes one has to go outside to do the shopping or other chores. It takes three servants to make sure one is never left alone."

Turgott himself hasn't seen the ghost—not yet, anyway.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

FIDELITY

Fidelity is simple daring to be true in small things as well as great.—Henry Van Dyke.

The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can do, well, and doing well whatever you do, without a thought of fame.—Longfellow.

Only they who fulfil their duty in everyday matters will fulfil them on great occasions.—Kingsley.

No greater hope have we than in right thinking and right acting, and faith in the blessing of fidelity, courage, patience, and grace.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Constancy to truth and principle may sometimes lead to what the world calls inconsistency in conduct.—Tryon Edwards.

Political or professional reputation cannot last forever, but a conscience void of offence before God and man is an inheritance for eternity.—Daniel Webster.

FORECAST FEATHERS FOR FALL MILLINERY

Feathers replaced flowers as favorite adornments in the millinery mannequin parade held at the Melbourne Town Hall to forecast fashion trends for the Australian autumn and winter seasons.

Australian designers showed it's always possible to start something new in women's hats by featuring models of every color, shape and size. The trend is for off-the-face hats in striking color combinations, while feathers are most frequently used.

Velling is still popular, worn over the face to give a mystic air, under the chin, or hanging like a birdcage.

ORIGIN OF SAYING

What is the reason we say a task is "as easy as duck soup"? A pond or puddle of water is, by humorous analogy, called "duck soup". A puddle caused by rainfall will materialize without human effort. Thus "easy as duck soup" indicates a project requiring no special effort.

Most of the streets in Lima, Peru have different names for every block.

Scientists Have Silent Airplane

LANGLEY FIELD, Va.—Scientists have produced the first "silent" airplane. Two hundred aviation experts, here for a demonstration of the new ship, call it one of aviation's major developments of recent years.

John F. Victory, secretary of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, said that complaints about noise had closed a number of metropolitan airports.

The racket of planes overhead causes some property near airports to decline in value and has brought a number of lawsuits.

J. A. Shortall, project engineer for NACA, said the plane demonstrated here was the first one built in which all silencing methods had been fully applied.

It has a five-bladed propeller which revolves at a slower speed than a conventional one. The new propeller reduces noise pressure 90 per cent.

In the demonstration, a plane equipped with a new propeller and muffler made scarcely more noise than a glider when at a 300-foot altitude. Listeners on the ground said:

Whaling Harvest Exceeds Expectations

Britain is bringing back from the Antarctic a rich harvest of whale oil, meat, for cattle, feed and meat extract. The season has been remarkably good and the factory ship "Balena" was fortunate in securing the highest proportion of whales and edible oil. Owing to the fact that at the present moment world needs are the most critical ever known, no less than 14 different expeditions have been fishing in Antarctic waters. More than 2,000 whales were caught by United Kingdom crews, 185,000 barrels of oil were produced in addition to sperm oil and other by-products. Another way in which the expedition distinguished itself was in the pioneer use of aircraft for whale-spotting and for weather reconnaissance.

HUMAN HAIR USED TO REPAIR VEIL

HARRISMITH, South Africa.—An heirloom veil repaired with human hair, was used by a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Pattinson when she was married recently. The veil had been used by several of her ancestors. It had, however, developed a few small holes, and "invisible mender" could do nothing with the veil. The threads were so fine that they had nothing to match it. Mrs. Pattinson eventually removed several long hairs from her head, and repaired the veil so beautifully that not a mark is visible.

Blames Sun Spots For Inclement Weather

LONDON, Ont.—An astronomer looked at the sun, shook his head dubiously and said it didn't look like much of a summer.

Dr. W. C. Colgrove, University of Western Ontario astronomer, explained there were too many sun spots in sight—250 to 300 of them.

The spots cause inclement weather by increasing the heat of the sun and absorbing the earth's water bodies, causing precipitation, he said. Just what parts of the world suffer the most will depend on how the spots are grouped.

PLAN TO CYCLE ACROSS CANADA

LONDON.—Planning to cycle across Canada, Michael Bradley, a professional singer, and Alfred Griffiths, a store manager, both of London, left here for Montreal by plane.

The two men will receive £75 ($300) each, two cycles, two changes of clothing—and abundant hopes.

On the cycling tour they will seek jobs to pay their way. "We plan to reach Vancouver in September so that we can cross the Rockies before the snow starts," Griffiths said. "We do not want to spend our £150. We hope to pick up odd jobs to pay our expenses."

"In Vancouver we shall decide what part of Canada we like best and return there to settle. There is no incentive working in England so we decided, while we are still young enough, to find something nearer our own ideas of living."

Griffiths is 33 and Bradley 38.

FEMALE FARM WORKER

Preparations are now being made for an excursion of female workers from the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta to British Columbia. This announcement was made in Winnipeg by Fred J. White, Regional Superintendent of the Unemployment Insurance Commission.

Women who take advantage of this excursion will be given full advantage of special railway rates. They will be able to acquire transportation from any point in Saskatchewan or Alberta to their destination in British Columbia for only ten dollars. When they have completed their duties they will be able to return home for five dollars.

These agricultural workers will be carefully selected women and girls in good health between the ages of 18 and 45, between the weights of 115 and 160 pounds.

Their duties will be to lend assistance in the harvesting of fruit crops, berries, etc., where they are grown; and orchard crops in other areas. When the various crops are not in season the workers will be given employment in canneries, fruit packing houses and related industries.

It is expected that the westbound movement will start on May 30th and continue into late June or early July. The workers will be required to return home after August 15th.

Read what a user of "Stanco" Livestock Spray says:

"We feel it a duty to tell you the results we have had from Stanco Livestock Spray. It really knocks out flies instantaneously. It is impossible to describe the relief it gives to animals. When the black fly pest came our cows were in great misery and we possibly would have lost the whole herd had we not immediately used Stanco. There is no doubt that the lives of quite a number of our cows are owed to Stanco Livestock Spray." (NAME ON REQUEST)
